

COMMEMORATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL DAY OF ZERO TOLERANCE AGAINST FGM PICTORIAL

Finalist teams of the youth soccer tournament in group photos ahead of the matches. The youth tournament featured eight teams whereby team coaches and captains were trained on health risks of FGM and mobilization skills

Participants of the final match of the soccer tournament who include the Mudug Regional Governor, his deputy and regional sports officials. Speakers recognized the need to actively engage the youth in ending the vice Participants of a youth Interactive session organized to mark the day follow proceedings. The session attracted 200 youth drawn from Secondary schools and tertiary institutions in Galkayo. The program included a 45 minute video show on the health risks of FGM and the Islamic religion stand point on the practice.

Above; GECPD Executive Director Hawa Aden engages the youth in a discussion on myths about FGM and best way forward during the interactive session.
Below; Hawa in a group photo with the youth and in a group photo with former graduates of the GECPD Integrated FGM/VAW education Program.

